Basic Features

Import due dates from various websites into BlackBoard extension different tabs for each individual website with due dates from said website

Different color codes for different websites

Link import button to add the website after logging in calendar with every websites assignments included same blackboard log-in information be able to add other tasks in that aren't related to a certain website

Platform/Application Type

Blackboard extension

Free online

Feedback From Users

Allow users to write comments on their experience and rate the help

Allow users to provide information on bugs and recommendations on future updates

Hurdles

update due dates on the extension if they are changed too many websites that can be added to the extension

Taking into account individual students with widely different schedules due dates importing incorrectly onto the wrong date not accepting certain websites to be added

Advertisement & Marketing

UofSC send a university wide email promoting the extension

Have various websites that teachers use promote the extension

Have the company that owns Blackboard release a statement and promote to colleges who use BlackBoard have teachers send an announcement through BlackBoard about the extension